Northwest Credit Union Association
Idaho • Oregon • Washington

NWCUA Bylaws: Article VII: Board Service (Revised January 2019)

Section 1 – Eligibility of Directors.

- Be the current President, CEO, or senior management level employee under NCUA Rules, Part 701.21 of an NWCUA Regular Member credit union;
- Senior management employees must have the approval from their President/CEO to be nominated;
- Be currently bonded for his or her position with the Regular Member credit union;
- Not be employed by the Association or any subsidiary during the past three (3) years prior to the time that he or she would become a candidate; and
- Agree to comply with the terms of the Association's Board Duties, Rights, and Responsibilities.

NWCUA Board Policy Manual: Appendix H (Revised January 2019)

Qualifications

The model board member is an individual who is passionate about NWCUA's work in policy advancement, public awareness, and collective action on behalf of credit unions and who has a track record of board leadership. His/her accomplishments will inspire the future work of the NWCUA through advocacy and program implementation and their leadership profile will attract other well-qualified, high-performing individuals to engage in the NWCUA's work or serve as potential future Board Members. Ideal candidates will have the following qualifications:

- Extensive professional experience with significant executive leadership accomplishments in business, government, philanthropy, or the nonprofit sector;
- A commitment to and understanding of NWCUA's beneficiaries, preferably based on experience;
- Savvy diplomatic skills and a natural affinity for cultivating relationships and persuading, convening, facilitating, and building consensus among diverse individuals; and
- Personal qualities of integrity, credibility, and a passion for improving NWCUA's beneficiaries.

Service on NWCUA's Board of Directors is without remuneration.

NWCUA Board Members will eagerly fulfill these commitments to the NWCUA. Each Board Member will individually and collectively engage in on-going conversations and leverage productive feedback to continue to evolve as a high-performing governance Board.